Summer Course of Study 2008

Advanced Polity: United Methodism's Global Connection

Dr. William K. Quick

ADVPOL: Advanced Polity: United Methodism's Global Connection

The church in mission is called to make disciples, to baptize and teach in the way of Jesus (Matthew 28:17-20). The history of the Christian Church is the history of the Gospel taking root in new contexts and geographical locations, to all ethnic groups and social classes. The changing paradigms in global mission in Africa, Asia, Latin America and Eastern Europe reveal God's work is leaving global footprints. Since 1991 The United Methodist Church has entered and currently is linked in mission and ministry in thirteen countries where we had no prior connections.

This class will focus on: the signs of emerging global trends within United Methodism, a history and theology for mission, the 21st century global context including a focus on the United States as the world's fourth largest mission field with its increasing unchurched population.
