

Materials used on Bulletin Board Kiosk:

Hand Tools:

Hand saw
Claw hammer
Brad hammer
Ball-peen hammer
Rubber mallet
Tape measure
48" metal ruler
45° and 30°-60° triangles
Shop pencil
Chisels and wood mallet
Calipers
Square sanding block
Dowel sanding block
Rubber sanding block
Screwdrivers
Clamps (12", 24", 36")
Heavy duty stapler
Crescent wrench
Socket wrench
Hand plane
Utility knife
Drawing compass
Saw horses
Step ladder
Broom
Swedish scraper
Metal file
Work bench vise
Shop coat
Four-in-hand half-round bastard
Paint brush

Power Tools:

Bench saw
Band saw
Router/shaper
Cove and round-over bits
Drill press
Plug cutter
Planer
Jointer
Power drill
Drill bits (and countersink bit)

Lathe
Parting tool
Circular saw
Portable power planer
Fan
Dremel tool
Belt sander
Orbital sander
Air nailer
Air vacuum/blower

Supplies:

Indoor/outdoor carpeting
Cork sheeting
Contact cement
Large rubber bands
Flat-head screws (1", 1 1/2", 2 1/2")
5/8" carriage bolts and nuts
Casters (locking)
Soap
Nails
Brads
Elmer's carpenters' glue
Staples
Wood filler
Sand paper (100, 120, 220, 400 grit)
Typing paper
Paper towels
Newspapers
Cardboard sheeting
Tack cloth
Polyurethane
Lacquer thinner

Wood:

Oak from the Aeolian echo organ, Duke Chapel
Oak from the old pews, Duke Chapel, for frame
Oak from New Hope Creek (hurricane Fran victim), for internal frame
Oak dowel, for some screw plugs
Oak plywood (3/8") for top
Lauan plywood (1/2") for bulletin board backing
Walnut from Chestnut Ridge, for corner posts
Poplar from Chestnut Ridge, for corner posts